

Paraphrasing Handout

Name: _____

Source Information:

(include Author, Title, Publisher, Date, and if it is from online, website address) –use easybib.com to make it a formal bibliographic citation.

--

Copy/Paste Your Article/Paragraph Here (circle words/phrases you do not know or understand and put a rectangle around keywords/phrases)	Note Taking Use this space for writing definitions or making notations regarding circled (not understood) words and/or synonyms for the rectangled words (keywords/phrases)	Type Your Paraphrased Article/Paragraph Here (don't forget to build your paraphrase around the keywords/phrases using the synonyms you identified)

Created by the Comal ISD Librarians' Conference, 2011

Adapted from: Ahn, M. (1999). How Do I Teach My Students to Paraphrase Academic Content in Order to Improve Their Reading Comprehension? [white paper]. Fairfax Co, VA. Retrieved 01-18-2010 from <http://gse.gmu.edu/assets/docs/lmtip/vol1/M.Ahn.doc>.

Tontodonato. (Spring, 2006). Handout on Cheating and Plagiarism. Kent State University, Dept. of Justice Studies. Retrieved 01-18-2011 from <http://www.personal.kent.edu/~ptontodo/plagiarismattachmentforsyllabus.htm>.